

REMIGIJUS VAINORIS

Software Development Professional

Profile

A passionate, self-motivated and ambitious technology entrepreneur who can work efficiently as an individual or part of a team. Extremely keen on keeping up to date with existing, and very curious to learn new, emerging technologies.

Specialising in: back end development, REST APIs, new and exciting frameworks. Ensuring that the work is always completed to a very high-quality standard. Able to learn quickly, either by using online learning platforms or by colleagues. Enjoy sharing knowledge and brainstorming ideas with other members of the team.

Having over 4 years of professional JAVA experience in various software projects ranging from telecommunications, PCI compliance solutions to critical alerting systems.

24 Witts Hill
Southampton
SO18 4QF
United Kingdom

+44 (0) 7801 44 3679

remigijus@vainoris.com

<http://in.vainoris.com>

Employment

Senior JAVA Developer

Nov 2018 - Present

Taking a senior role in the software development lifecycle from solution specification through implementation, testing and handover to quality assurance team.

Working closely with business analysts to design technical solutions. Leading development projects and supporting team to deliver high quality software.

JAVA Developer

Apr 2017 - Nov 2018

Junior JAVA Developer

Sep 2016 - Apr 2017

Software Development Intern

Jun 2015 - Sep 2016

Technical Director

Jun 2017 - Mar 2018

Co-owner of a technology business startup that focuses on web, Internet-of-Things, mobile and desktop application development. The role is being in charge of technical decision-making including architectural design, implementation strategy, overseeing the backend development process.

Research Assistant

Nov 2014 - Apr 2015

A joint venture between Southampton Solent University and University Hospital Southampton (UHS) to use data mining techniques to improve the healthcare of breast cancer patients. The job included researching the papers on following subjects: data mining, sequential pattern mining, temporal pattern mining and annotated sequences.

Advanced Co-Worker

Apr 2011 - May 2015

The job included working with thousands of customers on a daily basis while providing them with the best possible shopping experience. Tasks included: ensuring that customers were always in focus; contributing towards departments action plan; training and coaching co-workers; working towards agreed personal goals.

Education

Southampton Solent University

First-Class Honours degree with an overall score of 83%.

Course curriculum consisted of: personal (soft) skills development; database design and development; object-oriented programming; advanced web development techniques.

Final year project: Dinner Time! - Android application that is meant to improve the dining experience.

Other Information / Interests

Fluent in two languages; English (bilingual proficiency) and Lithuanian (native proficiency).

Full driving licence (11 years of experience).

Hobbies include: playing basketball, tennis, bownling, building and flying drones, photography.

Any further information can be found on the LinkedIn profile page.

References available upon request.